Access to Student Educational Records

The student services office is responsible for developing, implementing, and publishing procedures whereby students 18 years of age or older and parents of students under 18 years of age may gain access to their official student educational records in accordance with Family Education Rights and Privacy Act.