4050  Student Rights and Responsibilities

Enrollment of the College carries with it obligations in regard to conduct, both within and without the classroom. Students are responsible for abiding by the laws governing the College and are expected to observe standards of conduct set by the College. The student services office is responsible for developing the implementing procedures structured in accordance with the fundamentals of basic due process, for the hearing and resolution of student misconduct and student grievances.