The College catalog will be published each year. Because the catalog is the source document for determining the completion of graduation requirements, curriculum changes will be made generally once per year in the spring, except when mandated by the State or when the President recommends that a change is critically needed.