Use of College Name, Seal and Logo

The exhibition or other use of the College name, seal and logo is restricted to the official business of the College. No person may use or exhibit a name, seal or logo so nearly resembling those of the College that it tends to cause likelihood of confusion to the public. No other use is permitted without prior, written consent. Individuals wishing authorization to use the name, seal or logo for other than official business will direct requests to the President or designee. Apart from this policy, the use of seals and emblems are governed by state and federal law.
